My very very boring cat

I was two when this happened. My cat was left on the street then SPCA found my cat. But it was injured its bone was broken. My family wanted a cat. We went to SPCA to get a cat we got 8 cats. But we had to sell the car to feed the cats. After that we found a kitten who is my cat. I said can we adopt this cat? in baby language. My mom said yes. So we went back to the house on the way there we got a little house for the cat. The cat liked the house because it is big.

My cat is awesome and boring.
My cat is always asleep. My cat is pith black. My cat does not want another cat. My cat is cool. I Love my cat
